

NEW WAVE WOMEN

:

STATE OF PLAY

All following venues have been sent information (some more than once). Further details as shown:

1) ALL RFTS and BFI SUPPORTED THEATRES.

Most likely targets were:

Barn at Dartington: Have tried for months to speak to programmer (John Gridley) who is never there. They took Moira's package so should be pursued.

Cardiff Chapter Arts; Linda Pariser turned it down. Excuse is they have to programme more mainstream stuff to make their money.

Edinburgh Filmhouse:..Glasgow FT: have spoken to Paula Visocchi, should get back to her

Bristol: John Mount said YES but no dates set.

Hull: Spoke to Rob Gawthrop, should chase him

University of Kent: Murray Smith: chase

Warwick: Have spoken to John Gore and to Education worker Jac Wilkinson. Chase

Leicester Phoenix:

Manchester Cornerhouse:

Duke's Playhouse Lancaster:

Tyneside: YES: no dates.

Nottingham Broadway: Susanne Winfield

The Gantry: Andy Buchanan: link in with Southampton film festival.

Bradford: Bill Lawrence, I've spoken to him, he has interested.

Plymouth: don't know who's in charge now Tony's gone..

MAC: I will programme there as part of Birmingham film festival

Have also sent info to the following:

Falmouth Arts Centre

The Plough, Torrington

Falmouth school of Art

Univeristy of Plymouth (FINE Art)

PLYmouth College of Art

Bristol University Film and TV

University of West of England Art dept

Yeovil College

Trent UNiversity (Have links with Nottingham Broadway)

Northampton College

Dept of Media Studies, De Montfort

Derby University

Southampton Film Festival

Leeds Film Festival

Kent Inst of Art and Design (Al Rees)

Univeristy of Brighton

West Sussex College of Art and Design
Centre for Contemporary Art Glasgow
Cinema City Norwich (They have womens weekend)
Darlington Arts Centre
Dovecot Arts Centre Cleveland
Museum of Modern Art Oxford
Pimlico Arts and Media (Have no 16mm projection facilities at present)
Whitgift Film theatre Grimsby
Tate Gallery Education dept.
Fine Art dept Leeds
Centre for Continuing Education, Newcastle University
University of Lancaster