Dreams, Myths and Symbols Package

I met Cordelia today and discussed the above package with her. As it turns out she is planning a Salon at the ICA for April which will include the film-makers on our list - plus more. She suggested we tour that given also that Ian Christie has agreed to finance a co-op tour like that. I think it is not a bad idea as it would be more in the umbrella line of picking up other work done by others. There are problems but not insurmountable and I think it deserves a serious thought.

- (a) it is a two day event. This might mean restricting to three or four (or less venues outside London).
- (b) it requires by its nature and relationship to the work gallery space or gallery-type space.
- (c) Cordelia wants at least three people to go with it. She mentioned herself, Jem perhaps and one other person. For setting up and rest. She reckons that BFI might finance latter.

We could finance publicity and rentals, BFI transport and invigilation. The positive points are

- (a) A thorough and event-like package of this areas work would be seen.
- (b) ICA kick-off (perhaps in 1st floor gallery space).
- (c) We could play role of opportunistic pick-up of externally organised event.
- (d) Joint financing with BFI.
- (e) Cordelia would like me to be involved in planning and selection which would be beneficial.
- (f) It begins in April which is about right for us.
