Dear Werner Nekes,

I've just received a letter from you (?) dated 30.11.76 - it seems to have taken six months to arrive.

I enclose a cheque for £1575 being the rentals due to you as of end March 1977. This would have been sent sooner but until today we didn't know your address.

The new distribution catalogue is in fact complete and copies will be available next week. However as it took so long to put together the catalogue (due to lack of money) it is already out of date and a supplement is planned for autumn 1977. If you would like to add any films please let me know as soon as possible, giving details:

Year running time
sound/ silent (if sound specify mag. or opt., what f.p.s.)
colour/black & white Hire fee

I'd also like some notes - either a statement by you or a review - to put in the catalogue by way of description of the film. I hope to get started on this supplement in September but I'd like the written material as soon as possible and films can be sent over later.

In your letter you asked about "jum-jum". We have no print of this here. Was it sent to the Co-op, if so when? If you would like it added to the catalogue please send a print plus written information.

Sorry we have been out of touch for so long. Now that we know your address we'll be in contact more often. The Co-op moves to new (and bigger, better and more permanent premises) at the end of June. Rebuilding and fitting will take several months but we hope to be fully settled by September. The new address will be: 42 Gloucester Avenue, London N.W.1., not far from where we are now.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Felicity Sparrow
