Dear Elaine,

That's really good news about Womens Art Library; there's such a lot of synergy there; I await further details.

I wasn't sure whether to phone you about Sandra but assumed you would have heard. I had no idea she was even in hospital. Everyone seems really stunned and upset by the news; I think there's going to be a memorial event soon and I want to talk to the Lux about putting on a retro of her work.

it would be good to see you; next Friday (10th?) is probably best for me as I'm on holiday from the 17th and I know what that week is going to be like...
