Dear Audrey,

All it takes is a little patience. There was a mix up with the print of DAUGHTER RITE sent to The Other Cinema. It was not sent air freight and was not going to reach London in time for the showing at Little Bit Ritzy, so I just sent them a second print, this time Air Freight. That means, TO has two prints. I've asked them to give one to you, and I've given them your address. You should contact them to make the arrangements. The Other Cinema, 12/13 Little Newport Street, London WC2H 7JJ. Talk to Charles. They have paid shipping, etc. for both prints. I don't ~~know~~ know the cost of the slower shipment (perhaps 10 pounds or so). If it's not much, maybe you could pay it. I realize, <sup>they</sup> you did not ask for it to be shipped, and I also realize they are paying for both shipments because of an error that might have been ~~there~~. You are not obligated to pay. I think I would just like to make everyone happy. Decide what you can or cannot do. I will support your decision. ~~There~~ They have been extremely honest and fair with me (it was their idea to give you the second print) so I don't want to rip them off if that's possible. But I don't know all the circumstances- how much it will cost, whether you can afford it, etc.

Anyways, you do get your print.

Let me know if there are any problems.

Audrey - just got your cable. A day too late. I was afraid to send it to you through the festival because <sup>films are</sup> ~~it~~ sent charges forwarded & I didn't know if they would accept it - TOC said the festival wouldn't show it because of regulations. If you know ~~it~~ differently (like if the festival changes its mind - you might ask them - lend them your copy, please). Anyways - you get your print this way, either cheaply or for nothing. Sorry about all the mix-up. This cross-
