Dear Audrey,

Thanks for the contract. Did you get your print? I assume so since you didn't say otherwise. And thanks for the Article. I heard that the films at the Ritzy did well. I hope that gives you a lot of bookings.

Things here move slow. Winter has just arrived and everyone is freaked. It's suddenly so ~~xxxx~~ cold and it takes so much energy just to go to work. I've decided to spend the winter reading a lot and incubating ideas for a new film. I hope your own film goes well. After living in a small town in Michigan for three years, I do know what it's like to work in isolation. It's awful. At least the three of you working on the film can be supportive to each other.

Off hand I don't know of anyone to recommend for the possible position you mentioned. But I will pass the word on to Ruby and Julia (another wonderful, smart woman from Chicago who wasn't in Edinburgh this summer) and if anything ~~xxxxxx~~ turns up I'll certainly let you know. You weren't clear, would it be for a lecturer in theory or in production?

That's all for now. I'll keep in touch.
